

Tell Us What You Think About
The Proposed Urban Agriculture Ordinance
For the City of Detroit

The urban agriculture ordinance will allow gardens, farms, and other types of agriculture in the city and define the rules for operation in specific zoning districts.

The City of Detroit City Planning Commission will hold three community meetings. Come learn about the proposed Urban Agriculture ordinance, ask questions, and share your opinions

East

Wednesday
September 19, 6pm

St. Maron Social Hall
11466 Kercheval St.
Detroit, MI 48214

Central

Monday
September 24, 6pm

Tabernacle Missionary
Baptist Church
2080 Grand River
Detroit, MI 48226

West

Tuesday
September 25, 6pm

Greater Grace Temple
23500 W. 7 Mile Rd
Detroit, MI 48219

Presented by City of Detroit City Planning Commission, with our partner Detroit Food Policy Council. For more information contact Kathryn Underwood at (313) 224-6378 or KathrynL@detroitmi.gov. The ordinance will be available at www.detroitmi.gov/CityCouncil/CouncilDivisions/CityPlanningCommission prior to the community meetings